

Habitat for Humanity Montreal ReStore Opening

Founding Partner Background

In 2006, HFHC donors, The Home Depot Canada, MCAP and Genworth Financial Canada committed to a three year partnership with the Montreal affiliate with a donation of $360,000 and volunteer time to support land acquisition, home building and capacity building. This support further demonstrates their commitment to Habitat for Humanity and positions the Montreal affiliate for growth. They are the new Founding Sponsors of Habitat for Humanity Montreal.

Home Depot

As Canada's #1 home improvement retailer, The Home Depot Canada embraces its role as a leader in social responsibility and celebrates its long-standing commitment to volunteerism. Giving back is a core value at The Home Depot Canada. The Home Depot Canada is the leading supporter of Habitat for Humanity Canada, contributing more than $2.5 million annually. The Home Depot provides support through funding, materials and volunteers for the builds. The Home Depot Canada and Habitat participated in building hundreds of homes for families in-need across Canada since 1992.

MCAP

MCAP is Canada's largest independent real estate and equipment finance company with over $30 billion in assets under administration and offices across the country. MCAP values home ownership because it builds better and more productive communities. MCAP's business is to provide innovative home financing products to Canadian consumers in order to help them achieve their dreams of owning their own home. Habitat for Humanity also helps families in need achieve the same dream by providing them with safe, decent, and affordable housing which helps build better communities everywhere. MCAP is particularly proud of its ability to support Habitat for Humanity on a number of fronts. In addition to its direct financial contribution and volunteering at build sites, MCAP is able to support Habitat for Humanity through its own expertise in a field in which they work every day by managing a portfolio of almost $20 Million in interest free partner family mortgages at no charge.

Genworth Financial Canada

Genworth Financial Canada, The Homeownership Company, is the private sector supplier of mortgage insurance in Canada. Genworth works with lenders, mortgage brokers, real estate agents and builders to make homeownership more affordable and accessible anywhere in Canada. The company combines global experience in mortgage insurance with technological and service leadership to deliver innovation to the mortgage marketplace.

At Genworth, we believe in delivering value to the communities where our people live and work. Our partnership with Habitat for Humanity and other charitable initiatives is a tangible way to demonstrate our commitment to affordable and accessible homeownership. In helping to build homes, we help to build a brighter future for both our young people and for people in need.
